The House Of Supposition

by Joseph Gallagher

"Silver Dust

Poetic schools are interesting things. Somebody finds a sort of distinction, and others discover that somewhere in their consciousness a similar notion broods. Personalities somehow meet; a credo, expressed or unexpressed, is set up; and for a while, among the members, there is bickering and dreaming, creation and imitation, and finally separation.

In retrospect, after the dissolution of the school, often there can be seen only one or two of its members who actually adhered to its precepts, who actually found any great individual artistic fulfillment in the general cause.

In 1913 Ezra Pound (who was, in his lifetime, destined to do far more controversial things) started the Imagist school. He gathered a rather distinctive group from which he shortly withdrew to more reverberating tasks, such as artistically haunting T.S. Eliot. Amy Lowell marched in, picked up the pieces, and had an almost reactionary credo published, which, for some strange reason, loosed a storm of vilification.

Amy and her followers had six points, most of them centered upon exactness and the chiselled image, in contrast to sonorous generalities. Miss Lowell herself, while crusading for her credo, was brilliantly disobeying it in her poetry. The six main members of the group began to drift apart to their own individualism leaving only H.D. (Hilda Doolittle) as the one true Imagist poet.

The poetry from H.D.'s Imagist volumes can, to most modern readers, appear pointlessly superficial. All life and motion seem frozen in the sparse syllables of the brief free verse line. Describing a mighty surf, she suspended it in the static imagine of "splash your great pines." Probably a true appreciation of Imagist poetry would require a distinct and highly technical taste.

The Imagists are not remembered today for producing a significant poetry. They have been credited by some critics with making free verse intellectually respectable. In one of the finest of her poems, "The Islands," H.D. has a phrase which sums up the general attitude that has been given to true Imagist poetry like hers: "the cold splendor of song."

FORTIER OPTIMISTIC

by Roger Plasse

Hank Fortier, president of the Debating Club, has announced that this year's debating team promises to be representative of a high caliber for the school.

St. Michael's debating team was one of the top 32 teams in district 8 for '57-'58. With last year's services, who had a 32 win and 14 loss record, returning as varsity members this year. Fortier feels the club is very likely to go a long way. Returning debaters will be the bulk of the varsity team.

IN FINALS

Last year St. Michael's was one of the 32 teams invited to the Regional Finals in Worcester, Mass. Selections for the Regional Finals, in which teams from New York, New Jersey and New England are invited, are based on the percentage of wins and losses.

150 PINT QUOTA SET FOR DRIVE

By Thomas F. Murphy

"So precious to save, so little to give." This is the slogan for the Blood Drive, which will be taking place on St. Michael's campus Monday, November 10, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Austin Hall.

Anyone over twenty-one years of age may give as well as those eighteen and over with written permission from their parents.

This drive will be held under the auspices of the Biology Club, Paul Lombardi, Club President, has appointed the following committee: Paul Staffier, Chairman, Richard Bisson, John Graceffa, James Harkins and Daniel Hajjar.

150 PT. QUOTA

A quota of one hundred and fifty pints of blood has been set by the Vermont-New Hampshire Chapter of the Red Cross Blood Bank. Students, whether they donate or not, are covered for four years, or while they are in attendance at St. Michael's. This is because they are considered in residence while here.

$10 PRIZE

An award of $10 will be given to the residence halls or floor which has the highest representation by percentage.

Paul Staffier says, "Give, a little blood and save someone. Get out and give!"

YOUNG DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

As of date, one of the more active campus organizations is the Young Democrats' Club. With state and local elections on November 4th, this club's efforts are focused on the Democratic cause.

One of the purposes of the Young Democrats' Club is the organizing and working for the success of the Democratic candidates. Dr. Robert C. Spencer, Chairman of the Political Science Dept. and Democratic candidate for county senator, is guiding the club in its efforts.

"We are not only working for the success of Dr. Spencer but for the party as a whole," said club president Frank Lyons, '61.

Recording Lectures Are Here To Stay

SPEAKS ON ADVANTAGES

Father Morin began with an explanation of why the administration installed the method of teaching through the use of tape recorders. It was brought to the attention of the second year men that they were not being used as "guinea pigs", but rather that this type of presentation had been in practice last year on a small level.

TO CONTINUE IN YEARS TO COME

It was made very evident by the Academic Dean that, this "tape recording method", was here to stay. Fr. Morin stated that, "this method of presentation has been instituted in General Biology for the period of the next three years, and that modifications will be made whenever any legitimate faults are found to exist in this method".

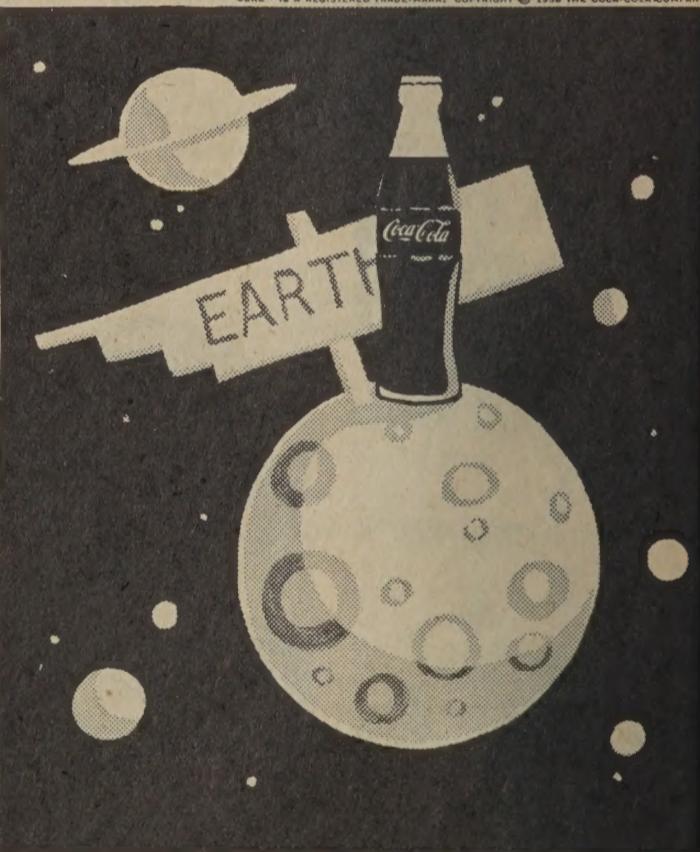

QUESTION AND ANSWER PERIOD

Upon terminating his explanation, Fr. Morin opened the floor to any questions or discussions that the Sophomores wished to bring up at this point. The class responded with eagerness and "pointed" question as well as many suggestions. The Academic Dean attempted to answer numerous questions brought forth on this very tender issue.

To the many Sophomores who attended this meeting with aspirations of having the tape system altered or abandoned there were many dashed hopes at the close of the meeting.

Military Weekend Set For Nov. 7,8,9

by Dick Allen

The entire schedule of events for the Military Weekend was released today by Chairman John Dillon. The weekend, sponsored by The Arnold Air Society will commence on Friday, November 7 and end Sunday, November 9.

The first attraction of the gala weekend will be what has been termed "Skit Nite." Every Squadron in the entire St. Michael's College Wing will present a fifteen minute skit of its own choice . . . or imagination. The program will begin at 8:30 P.M. and continue until all the skits are presented.

There will be eight squadron skits, one presented by the senior members of the Corps, and another by the Championship Drill Team. All the skits will be held in Austin Hall.

FLIGHT LINE TOUR

At 9:45 on Saturday morning cadets and their weekend guests will be taken by bus to Ethan Allen Air Force Base for a tour of the flight line. The tour will include the aircraft, operational and maintenance sections, as well as the buildings of the flight line. Buildings such as the Headquarters, Operations, and Briefing Room will be toured.

Program Launched

by Michael Burke

St. Michael's Foreign Student program has planned an extracurricular activities program. Its first step toward success was the soccer league which has conducted 10 games to date.

The program is similar to that of the American Students, yet adapted to the eight weeks spent here by these language students. In addition to the athletics, a number of clubs have been instituted.

NEWSPAPER

On October 21, a newspaper was published under the direction of Thomas Palmitests, editor, with the expressed purpose of giving the foreign students an opportunity to see their ideas expressed in English and to give the American students a direct report from the language division on campus. Palmitests is conducting a contest, seeking a name for this weekly newsnote.

MUSIC CLUB

Guy Roy was elected president of the Music Club. From a collection of international recordings, the members listen and discuss both the classical and popular selections. Tentative plans call for a glee club.

CHESS

Chess has become the center of attraction for a small group under the leadership of Syroos Bagat-Maboo.

PARTY CLUB

Finally, a Party Club has been met with overwhelming approval by the students. On Friday, October 17th, this group assembled in Aquinas Hall for an evening of story telling, singing and socializing. This was their first function.

This variety of activities has the positive intent of supplementing the curriculum so as to develop the whole student. The enthusiasm shown by the students of the foreign program, point to the successful attainment this goal.

Pat Dorn's Orchestra Highlights Weekend

Military Weekend band committee chairman Dick Allen informed the MICHAELMAN today that the orchestra of Pat Dorn will provide the music for the Military Ball to be held on November 8. The four hour affair will be held in the Winooski Armory to climax the weekend.

Fr. Coombs Briefs Council On Policy

by James Canavan

Rev. James E. Coombs, S.S.E., Moderator of the Student Council, was indeed in good humor last Tuesday night as he addressed the student governing body. Discussing a wide range of topics, from proper posters for dances to a plea for mercy concerning the disappearance of one "sign" from Trinity College, Fr. Coombs centered his address on the role of the Student-Administrative Relations Committee.

DON'T CALL ME - I'LL CALL YOU

Concerning the committee, the Council was cautioned not to assume the wrong attitude. "Remember, you do not initiate the action the Administration invites you to meet with them on any of these problems." Chiding the Council in a jovial manner for improper action, the moderator pointed out how two matters already referred to the Student-Administration Relations Committee could have been settled entirely within the Council. "Don't give everything to Charlie and send him in to see me about it," he added, making his point clear.

As one of his illustrations was the matter of a public phone on campus to be open all night, a discussion was initiated. Replying to the interrogation of Sophomore Dick Hickey on "emergencies", Fr. Coombs asserted he didn't "care if you put 500 telephones all over this campus so long as you (the Council) do it." He then listed the expenses and responsibilities involved with a public phone.

As for "emergencies", Mr. Hickey's questions were dismissed by pointing out that calls are received into the college on certain extensions all night long and that a proctor's key can open the area where the pay phones are located for necessary off-campus calls.

Michaelmen Granted Halloween OFF!!

by Richard Hickey

In a recent interview with The Academic Dean, Rev. Paul A. Morin, S.S.E., on general campus conditions, it was made known that the students will be given off Friday, Oct. 31 starting at 10:30 A.M.

Fr. Morin stated, "that the Administration felt that a breather for the general welfare of the student body was in order at this time". Classes will draw to a close Friday, Oct. 31 at 10:30 and will resume Monday, Nov. 3 at 8:30.

The Dean made it very clear that there will be absolutely no changing of class schedules or dropping of classes allowed before or after this specified period. Father Morin in this interview stated, "that if this cutting of classes or changing of class schedules is the case this year that the Administration could not entertain the thought of a similar breather next year".

The Administration also wishes to make known to the student body that any rumors to the effect that the Friday after Thanksgiving will be given off are simply rumors and unfounded.

JOB (in an impatient mood)

To The Editor:

I would like to stop all this ridiculous reference to a science major bloc. In our class, science has the highest percentage of students but we are by no means organized to take over the Student Council.

I am referring to the account of the last Student Council meeting in THE MICHAELMAN, concerning one item in the budget of the Biology Club. The passage was "Feeling this an unnecessary expense of the Council, the group denied and the science major bloc, so prevalent in other areas of campus voting, failed to materialize." I would like to point out that the vote of the Council was very nearly unanimous in favor of cutting out this particular item.

If this bloc does exist, it exists only in the small minds of those who want to believe it. Let's all forget this major vs. major nonsense and grow up and be seniors.

Sincerely,
Donald J. Houde, 59

It was dark in the little sleeping bag. Miguel pulled off one boot. He pulled off the other boot. His mind was on the beer. Not far off, the colorful toros were strumming on their muchachos. The wind was restless in the trees. He thought of the beer.

"I will have the Schaefer now. The beer."

Teresa brought it to him. She watched him drink la cerveza real—the real beer. "¿Qué tal?" she said. She was blushing.

"It goes well. It is of the palate. It is of the throat. The Schaefer beer is buena."

"Is it round?"

"It is round."

"What does 'round' mean?" She was afraid he would think her a fool.

"You are a fool," he said. "It is the word of the expertos—the experts. It means a smooth harmony of flavors. No rough edges."

"The Schaefer is round," she smiled.

"It is your kind of beer, mi vida," he said.

"It is your kind of beer, dumbkopf," she said.

"It is our kind of beer. Todos los días."

They were quiet thinking of the Schaefer. Somewhere the conquistadores began to sing softly. The time of the Schaefer was a good time.

Srs. Win In Duckpins

Ray Bissonette paced the Seniors to a 4-0 win in the first match of the intramural bowling league.

WIN EVERY GAME

Many marks were scored as the seniors toppled 1459 pins to the juniors 1391. The seniors scored three times for points by beating the juniors in every game. They earned their last point, when their total number of pins were 68 more than those of the juniors.

Ray Bissonette had the high single of the night with a sharp 129. Bissonette also had the high triple with 318. Ed Goyette was only 5 pins behind that, however he scored a 313 triple for the juniors.

PLAYERS

Those who bowled for the seniors were: Harold Wimette, Ray Bissonette, Pierre Prevost, Tom Brault, and John Barney. The pin toppers for the juniors were: Dick Salsillo, Ron Von Stetina, Fred Nowak, Ed Goyette, and Stan Tencza.

The Freshmen didn't show up for their match against the sophomores, so the sophomores won 4-0.

Juniors Upset Sophs

by Don Dakin

A revitalized Junior football team led by Rolli Holub and Patsy DeAngelis pulled an amazing upset over the Sophomores, 7-2.

It was the final game of the year with the Sophomores already declared champions but with the Juniors in a position to move out of the cellar.

THE JUNIORS

This they did in fine fashion. The defense put up could not be penetrated when it counted. As a result 7 of Harry Kerrigan's passes were intercepted - 3 by little Joe Guarnaccia.

GUARNACCIA

Guarnaccia was great both on offense and defensive. On one play he set up the Junior touchdown by running 75 yds. after intercepting a pass in the end zone.

With the ball near the 40 yard line Rolli Holub tried a run around left end. He was boxed in from all sides but miraculously got loose shaking off the Sophomore defense as he ran. Down the sidelines he went for a 6-0 Junior lead.

HOLUB & STEVENS

Holub's pass to Louey Stevens made it a 7-0 game as time ran out in the half.

Trailing 7-0 going into the second half the Sophomores tried desperately to score. Passes to Danny Mahoney, Dick Guilmette and Bissonette were their most effective play. But each time they threatened a Junior would intercept.

Now with Kerrigan trying to pass, the Juniors again took possession close to their own goal line. On the first play from scrimmage Holub was pinned in the end zone thus giving the Sophs 2 points.

TIME RUNS OUT

Again the Sophomores tried to score. They brought the ball to the Junior 15 yard line with a first down. However there was less than a minute to play.

Each time a play failed the Sophs called time thus being penalized four times for excessive time outs. This saved time but not the ball game as the clock stopped while Dick Guilmette caught a 30 yard pass on the 10 yard line.

DEBATING

With experience gained from last year and many of those debaters returning, Fortier finds the outlook bright. This team promises to have a good year with such members as: Paul LoRusso, Chuck Messenger, Fred Englert, Jim Tobin, Bill Kane, Hank Fortier, Dave LaMarche and Joe Mastromatto.

by the moderator, a letter from Mr. John Donoghue, Public Relations Director, was read to the Council. Alluding to a poster advertising the recent Sophomore Dance placed in a public restaurant, Mr. Donoghue criticized the use of "St. Mike's" instead of "St. Michael's" and the grammatical faults. He emphatically illustrated his strongest point in relation to the phrase "girls admitted free. In a public establishment this would seem to indicate that "any old hag" is welcome at St. Michael's dances and does establish doubt about "a Michaelman's charms."

Fr. Coombs closed his address with a noble plea for the return of a sign to Trinity College, if, in fact, Michaelmen are responsible for its loss.

JUNIOR WEEKEND

Dennis Murphy, Junior Class President, initiated a motion to request permission for the Class of '60 to conduct a raffle over Christmas vacation. Following a brief address by Mike Gelinas, co-chairman of Junior Weekend, the motion passed as it was understood the proceeds would be used for Junior Weekend.

Senior President Albie Brault brought two problems to the Council's attention. The first was a recommendation for a new method of selecting Who's Who nominees each year. While not fostering any set method, Brault did stipulate that the selections should be made by the entire Senior Class in future years. In his only opportunity of the evening to do so, Fortier moved the question and the motion passed.

Sophomores Dominate All-Star Team

KERRIGAN, BASEL, CLIFFORD RECEIVE AWARDS

by Don Dakin

It was certainly a Sophomore season in football this year as they won the Interclass Football Title and have now placed eight players on the Interclass All Star Team. Four coaches and two officials picked the team.

The Freshmen placed four players while three came from both the Senior and Junior Teams. These figures correspond generally with the teams' final standings in the league itself.

OFFENSIVE TEAM

The offensive team will be quarterbacked by Freshman Willie Basel with teammate, Joe Morgan, Sophomore Harry Kerrigan and Senior speedster, Paul Lennon, in the back field.

The offensive line finds the Juniors' sensational Lou Stevens on one end and Dick Guilmette, a Sophomore on the other. "Rock" Edwards and "Rug" Torykian have the guard positions with Senior Tim Walsh centering.

DEFENSIVE TEAM

With Gary Andrews and "Tiny" Clifford receiving unanimous votes from the coaches and officials the defensive team looks great.

Clifford along with Bob Hojnacki, Jim Novak and Jerry Boisseau compose the rushing line while Andrews, Danny Mahoney, Patsy DeAngelis, Joe Mahoney and Charley Hart make up the pass defense.

The consensus is that this team could run all over UVM with no trouble at all. Watch them in action November 7 as they tangle with the ROTC All Stars and form your own ideas.

OFFENSIVE:

WILLIE BASEL - FRESHMAN

Probably the finest quarterback to come to St. Mike's in a long time is Willie Basel. Calling the plays for the freshmen he ran and passed them to a second place birth. Watching from Alumni Hall some observers said Willie's passes sailed close to sixty yards. Willie is from Garden City, Long Island, and played for Chaminade H.S.

HARRY KERRIGAN - SOPHOMORE

The first of the Woburn boys to make the team Kerrigan was at the helm of the Sophomore team. Kerrigan's running and passing was the factor that paved the way for the Sophomore championship. He also played on occasional defensive position when the chips were down.

JOE MORGAN - FRESHMAN

Coming to St. Mike's from Immaculate Conception H.S. in Revere, Mass., Joe won his position on the All Star Team for his great running and fine pass receiving. Joe was always on the opposite end of Willie Basel's flank passes.

PAUL LENNON - SENIOR

From Woburn, Mass., where he didn't play football Paul Lennon must be considered as one of the most improved players. His running was a key factor in the Seniors' offensive attack.

DICK GUILMETTE - SOPHOMORE

Noted primarily for his basketball talents Dicky Guilmette came through in fine fashion being the most consistent of the sophomore ends. Dick never played football at Lanesboro High School, Maine, but he did play baseball which probably attributes to his fine receiving.

LOUEY STEVENS - JUNIOR

Louey Stevens sparked the Junior late season drive as he made some real fine receptions of the Mahoney pass. From Saratoga Springs, Louey went to St. Peters Academy where he played football for 4 years.

TIMMY WALSH - SENIOR

Edging Sophomore Jim Booth by one vote Timmy is the third All Star from Woburn High School in Woburn, Mass. Walsh also played on the defensive team and knocked away many a pass for the Seniors.

JACK EDWARDS - SENIOR

The "Rock" played his high school ball in Scituate High School in Scituate, Mass. Playing both offense and defense for the Senior team he was the mainstay of their line.

"RUG" TORYKIAN - SOPHOMORE

The surprising thing about Rug is that Chaminade didn't even use him. The 250 lb. weight lifter from Rockville Center not only played a good line but also kept the crowd amused with his frequent witticisms.

DEFENSIVE:

BOB HOJNACKI - FRESHMAN

Bob Hojnacki, basketball great from Detroit, Michigan, claimed fame both on offense and defense. His performance at right end for Willie Basel was terrific as he caught pass after pass over the middle.

"TINY" CLIFFORD - SOPHOMORE

In the capacity of captain of the sophomore team "Tiny" Clifford was used both offensively and defensively. Because of his great play at Lewiston High in Maine, "Tiny" was offered in the area of 8 college scholarships. This type of play was demonstrated this year as he hustled his way to being named the best lineman in the league.

JIM NOVAK - SOPHOMORE

Another player from Detroit, Jim Novak was a key figure in many of the Sophomore goal line stands. In one game he dropped Willie Basel from the 2 yard line back to the 12 thus ruining the Fresh scoring threat at that time.

JERRY BOISSEAU - SOPHOMORE

The other end of the sophomore line, Jerry Boisseau can be given credit for many opposing quarterbacks being tagged for losses. Jerry, a Plattsburgh boy, played ball for St. Johns Academy in Plattsburgh.

PATSY DE'ANGELIS - JUNIOR

It was Patsy De'Angelis' constant encouraging chatter that helped the Juniors in many a tight position. Playing as a line backer on defense he also shared the calling of plays with Joe Mahoney on offense. Patsy played football at Cathedral High in Springfield, Mass.

JOE MAHONEY - JUNIOR

While playing ball for Cathedral High of Springfield, Mass., Joe Mahoney was named on the Western, Mass., All-Star Team. His running of an extra point around the left end

DAN MAHONEY - SOPHOMORE

Dan Mahoney, Worcester, Mass., came into his own at the close of the season as he intercepted many passes when possession was vital to the sophomore cause. His performance as a pass receiving back and blocking back were also commendable because Danny never played these positions when playing for St. Johns Prep.

GARY ANDREWS - SOPHOMORE

Gary Andrews' was the stabilizing force of the sophomore defense. His insight as to where the ball would go and his great speed caused havoc with opposing quarterbacks. Gary is the third member of the All Star Team coming to us from Detroit, Michigan.

CHARLEY HART - FRESHMAN

Primarily a basketball player Charley Hart made a name for himself on the football field also. His interception of a Harry Kerrigan pass made it possible for the Freshmen to tie the sophomores. Charley played football and basketball at Atlantic Highlands H.S. in New Jersey.

The Amazing Juniors

Don't let the standings fool you! Although the Juniors finished the year in third place with a below .500 percentage, they came close to being the surprise team of the year.

It appeared as though the Juniors were this year's patsies.

But on October 8, playing against the Seniors, they started a commendable comeback. Sparked by Joe Mahoney's fine passing and Stevens' out of this world receiving they pulled out a 6-6 tie, scoring in the final 30 second of play.

Their next game found them matched in a game which decided the championship of the league. Joe Guarnaccia caught a touchdown pass as the Juniors beat the second place Freshmen 7-6. Now bring on the Sophomores!!

As you all know the Juniors won that game and finished up a fine season of play. This is not the story of one or two stars but a group of many determined guys.

It's the story of Patsy DeAngelis whose fiery character kept his line rushing hard. The story of little Davy Dowd taking on the likes of Clifford and Torykian!

The story of their mighty center, Freddy Armstrong and hard charging Joe Kozlowski. Joe Guarnaccia, catching pass after pass, opened the way to the Juniors first victory as did Mahoney's running and passing.

And there's one more name not to be overlooked -- Roland J. Holub. Where did he come from? Watching the first Junior games, Rolly didn't even play.

Finally with Joe Mahoney benching it with an injured shoulder Holub was given a chance in the final game. He was terrific. Running and passing leading the Juniors to a triumph over the champion Sophomores.

Thus the Junior's story ends.
